Classical Dressage Clinic

Relaxation, Balance, and Impulsion

Rivers Pointe Stables
Hebron, KY

4/15-4/16

About the Trainer: Annemieke Bulis is a trainer specializing in classical dressage and biomechanics with over 16 years of experience working with horses in numerous disciplines. With a B.S. in psychology and further education in a neuropsychology, her teaching and training are influenced by her knowledge of behavior, emotion, learning, neuropsychology, the mind-body connection, and perceptual physiology. Annemieke is now based in Central Kentucky where she travels to her clients' farms to teach and train horses in a way that promotes physical and psychological well-being. Learn more at <https://equineconnection.squarespace.com>

About the Clinic: Join us to learn about the interconnectedness of relaxation, balance, and impulsion in French classical training and how to overcome challenges both on the ground and in the saddle. The clinic will include in-depth lecture, discussion, demonstration, and one-on-one sessions with Annemieke. In your individualized session with Annemieke, you may choose to work on groundwork, in-hand work, lunging, riding, or a combination. All disciplines and levels welcome!
