

2009 State 4-H Horse Show

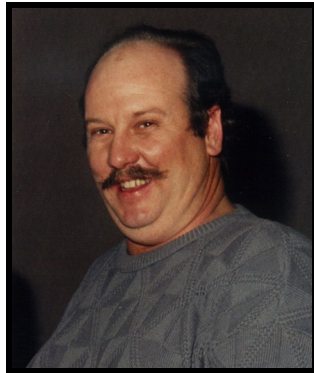

UK COOPERATIVE EXTENSION SERVICE
University of Kentucky – College of Agriculture

DEDICATION

Mike Butler

Mike became involved with 4-H in 1988. Driven by his desire to see his daughter, Kelly, involved in the 4-H Horse program, Mike determined to become a very active 4-H parent and the club's biggest advocate. He encouraged not only Kelly, but the entire club. He was proud to be their biggest cheerleader!

His greatest contribution has been his continued enthusiasm and committed support of the 4-H program for the last 22 years. Throughout the years, the manner in which he gives his support has changed, but never his desire to "help out in any way possible". When his daughter was involved in 4-H, he was the "go to parent", the one who knew what was going on, attended every meeting and workshop, helped with fund-raisers, quizzed the members on horse bowl questions, helped them prepare for their demonstrations, and drove other members and parents to Lexington for the 4-H State Fair.

During the state 4-H show, he stayed at the Fairgrounds, from beginning to end, supervising, encouraging, and even comforting "his 4-H kids" whatever they needed at the time, always making sure both club members and horses were safely "put up for the night" and ready for their classes the next morning.

Once his daughter graduated high school and went off to college, Mike still wanted to contribute his time to 4-H. It was then (1997) that he started doing the announcing at the area 4-H horse shows and the 4-H state horse shows.

In 1999, Mike was very proud to receive the Mac McQue Volunteer Award from the Jefferson County 4-H Horse Program. Many may remember his response; "I didn't do this to receive an award or attention, I just enjoy the kids and the horses". He always knew the behaviors of the horse that each child exhibited, just as well as he knew the kids' behaviors, and how they would handle each other.

Mike also has a son, Duane, who was in Boy Scouts, and he was just as committed and involved with Boy Scouts as he was with 4-H. While it is true that Mike has offered much time, support, and commitment to 4-H, he considers it one of his most rewarding experiences. He eagerly welcomes each opportunity to be a part of the 4-H program.

Here are a few thoughts from Mike's nominators:
"What hasn't Mike done to help and support the 4-H program? He has announced at shows, been gatekeeper, ring steward, delivered the pep talks before a class, got a "poke for good luck", hung our fans, got our shavings, scooped poop at the parades, manned the Crow's Nest...anything and everything that needed to be done Mike was and IS there to help. I can't imagine 4-H without thinking of Mike Butler."

"Growing up this never seem odd to me - I thought all Dads did this. As an adult I understand how incredibly lucky I was to call the man everyone knew and could count on, Dad."

"Mike realized, years ago, 4-H is not only good for the 4-H'er but also good for the parent. It is one of the best programs around that allows parents to spend quality time with the child. Mike will let you know there is no better joy than spending time with your child and seeing their face light up."

Please join the Kentucky 4-H Horse Program in honoring Mike Butler's contributions to the youth of Kentucky at the Dedication Ceremony, Wednesday, July 1st at approximately 7 pm.

Betty Ortlieb*KentuckyDressage-Hunter Division*

Betty has had a lifelong love of horses. She started training/competing hunters/jumpers, and along the way has also trained/competed English/Western pleasure and Thoroughbred and Quarter Horse race-horses. In the late 70's, Ms. Ortlieb's main focus became eventing and dressage. As her knowledge of dressage developed, she found that she wanted to learn even more. Betty has had the good fortune to work with some wonderful teachers, such as Michael Matthews, Tom Poulin and Dr. Max Gahwyler. During the 90's, she went through and graduated with Distinction for the USDF "L" judges program. With her husband, Gary, Betty owns and operates Mirkwood Farm in Pendleton county, Kentucky, where she teaches students and trains horses.

Jennifer MoshierOhioHunter Division*

Jennifer is pleased to have been invited to judge the 2009 Hunter Division of the Kentucky State 4-H Horse Show. Jennifer has been a long supporter of 4-H and its programs, as a judge, trainer, instructor and past long time member. As a career judge of 18 years, she holds cards with 5 national breed organizations as well as USEF "r" Hunters, Equitation and Hunter Breeding divisions. She is an approved 4-H judge in 8 states, including Kentucky, and serves on the Ohio State 4-H Horse Judges Committee. In the Hunter ring, she has judged shows of all sizes throughout the US, from schooling and 4-H shows to pointed, with a strong roster on the east coast and at her winter home in Florida. In addition to Kentucky, she has judged 4-H State Shows in the Hunter Division in New York, Maryland, and South Carolina. This year, Jennifer will also be judging the Hunter division at the POAC International in Missouri. Outside the show ring, Jennifer coaches and trains two small, select show strings in Ohio and Florida, of which 99% of her riders are 4-H members. Her hus-

"Good luck to everyone, I hope you find your best rides this year in Louisville. This may or may not merit a blue ribbon, but should bring you the utmost pride and reward for all of your hard work to reach this level of competition. No matter what, never stop learning from your horse and what these experiences bring to you. I am looking forward to seeing you do your best!"

Armon Effinger*IndianaSaddleseat & Miniature Division*

Mr. Effinger travels to Kentucky from his home farm Armon Effinger Stables in Indiana, specializing in training, sales, riding instruction and breeding. His farm stands Noble Viking, champion harness and 5-gaited Saddlebred by Hide A Way's Wild Country. He has been involved in the Saddlebred business since 1975 through showing, training and judging. His clientel range in age from 13-80, and show successfully in all aspects of the Saddlebred world. Mr. Effinger has judged all over the United States, including the Worlds Championship Horse Show right here in Louisville, Kentucky.

Margaret Herstberger*VirginiaWalking/Racking/Mountain Division*

Born in North Carolina, Mrs. Herstberger launched her life-long love affair with horses at an early age. She has ridden and owned saddlebreds, Arabians, QH's, pintos, as well as her favorite gaited breeds (TWH, Rackers, and SSH's). During her gaited showing career, Mrs. Herstberger won numerous Championships and Reserves in VA, NC, and PA, as well as several year-end high point awards in NWAHA. After graduating from East Carolina University with her teaching credentials, she taught high school as well as opened her first riding academy in Portsmouth, VA. Her 4-H students have won many ribbons, including Championship and Reserve at the VA District and State levels.

Herstberger, cont.

In 1994, she became a licensed open-horse show judge for North Carolina, and, in 2004, began her career as a NWA judge. She obtained her UMH judges' license in 2007. She has judged shows in VA, NC, SC, PA, TN, IN, and TX and is looking forward to adding KY to her list. Currently, she resides in Chesterfield County, VA with her husband and 8 horses.

Bruce Army

Ohio
Western Contest Division

Originally from Ohio, Bruce Army has been a long-time judge of many types of horses. He retired from being a school counselor and now judges several shows each year. He currently holds cards in ApHC, AQHA, APHA, PtHC, NSBA and NRHA. In his free time, he currently trains and judges.

Marty Jo Hays

Ohio
Western Division

With her parents married on horseback, Marty Jo was destined to be involved in the horse business. She started showing AQHA as a youth, with a judging career soon to follow. Her judging resume is lengthy, carrying judges cards in AQHA, APHA, & NSBA, judging over 20 shows per year. She served many years as a riding instructor and trainer at her home near Eaton, Ohio. Marty Jo and her husband, Gary, will soon be celebrating their 34th wedding anniversary.

Heather Comerate

Oklahoma
Drill Team

Heather Comerate competed heavily in the sport of Equestrian Drill Team on the West Coast before moving to Oklahoma in 2001. She has served as a licensed Drill Team Judge at competitions across the country including the Oregon State Meet, Washington State Meet, Cow Palace Challenge Drill Competition, The SuperRide, Texas State 4-H Drill Finals, and many more. In 2002 she created her company Drill Fever, which provides products & services for the sport at www.drillfever.com. Heather is also the creator of the BLING BLOUSE, a sequined blouse designed for horsemen. A mother of two young girls, she has been married to David Comerate for 14 years and travels often giving private and group Drill Clinics across the country. Heather is a charter member of the United States Equestrian Drill Association (USEDA) and the newly formed Oklahoma Equestrian Drill Association (OKEDA).

Bob Lorbeer

California
Drill Team

Bob is from Sacramento, California where he has ridden drill and been Captain of the Sacramento Sheriff's Posse for 15 years. Under Bob's leadership, the Sacramento Sheriff's Posse has won numerous drill team, parade and mounted color guard championship trophies. Bob also rides with the Long Beach Mounted Police and has ridden in the past 13 Rose Parades on January 1, in Pasadena, CA. Bob is the California State Horsemen's Association Drill Team Committee Chair and has coordinated and hosted many drill team competitions and drill team clinics. Bob holds drill judge licenses from national and state drill organizations, including: USEDA, CSHA, WSEDTA, WLRCA, PNWDTA, and OWDTA. Bob has judged Drill Team Competitions in California, Texas, Florida, Georgia, Washington, and Oklahoma and is looking forward to judging the Kentucky 4-H Horse Show Drill Team Competition.
