

KENTUCKY 4-H STATE HORSE SHOW 2019

DEDICATION

Kendra Cunningham

Kendra Humphrey Cunningham is part of at least a third generation 4-H family involved in the 4-H Horse Program. She was a 10 year 4-H member of the Carson Park 4-H Horse Club. She is or has been involved in 4-H at the county, area, district and state levels. She has served as delegate on the Purchase Area 4-H Horse Council and as the Treasurer of the District 7 4-H Horse Management Team. Kendra Humphrey Cunningham is part of at least a third generation 4-H family involved in the 4-H Horse Program.

Kendra was a 10 year 4-H member of the Carson Park 4-H Horse Club. She is or has been involved in 4-H at the county, area, district and state levels. She has served as delegate on the Purchase Area 4-H Horse Council and as the Treasurer of the District 7 4-H Horse Management Team.

Kendra has served in many capacities in the general 4-H program including Fashion Revue Committee and judge, Ballard County 4-H Council President and Vice-President, 4-H Achievement Records committee and served on the County Extension Council representing 4-H. She has said that involvement in the 4-H Program has contributed to her personal development through public speaking as both a youth and adult. The communications skills she has learned have helped her work with people of all ages and backgrounds. She enjoys seeing 4-Hers develop these skills and the poise and self-confidence it helps to instill.

“Kendra is a joy to work with, we can always count on her for knowledge, support, and sound advise,” said Dr. Fernanda Camargo.

Kendra is the daughter of Junior and Jane Humphrey, previous recipients of the State 4-H Horse Show Dedication. She is the wife of Howard Cunningham all of Kevil, Kentucky.

Please join the Kentucky 4-H Horse Program in honoring Kendra Cunningham for her contributions to the youth of Kentucky at the Dedication Ceremony, Saturday, June 29th at approximately 6 pm..
