

2022 Kentucky 4-H State Fair

DEDICATION

Rob Wagner

Robert James Wagner, Rob, is part of a multi-generation family involved in the 4-H Horse Program. He was born in Bedford, KY, and has been active with horses ever since, helping on his parents' farm, taking care of the livestock, driving their tractor, and what used to be a passion has evolved into a lifelong career.

At age 8, Rob sold his first pony, Grover, effectively launching his business in the horse industry. As a horseman, Rob became well known for taking the most difficult horses and turning them around, when most people would have given up.

Today, Rob wears many hats, with daddy and husband being his two favorites. He is also a full time farrier, colt starter, fixer of everything, and, according to his wife, Marissa, has the magical ability of making everything possible for his family.

Rob has been active in 4-H all his life from helping out to build the jumps we currently use, to taking over the responsibility for them when he was old enough to drive and deliver them, to being the show farrier, and managing the our arena footing.

“Rob is absolutely indispensable for the 4-H State Horse Show as the arena footing manager and tractor operator, and our show farrier for over a decade. This show literally depends on his abilities to happen. On a personal note, he’s also one of the most helpful and kindest persons I know”, says Dr. Fernanda Camargo.

Rob is the son of Gus and Beth Wagner, previous recipients of the State 4-H Horse Show Dedication. He is married to Marissa, his love and best friend, and is the proud father of 4, Grady, Baylor, Charlotte and Haisley. Together they run and manage their Clinched On Faith farm and farrier services.
